

MEMORANDUM

ROLLINS COLLEGE

TO: Roxwell Robinson

DATE: 3/28/74

FROM: M. Bakscheider

COPIES TO:

---

SUBJECT: Black Awareness Week

My Black literature class and I offer the following names:

Sonia Sanchez

Don L. Lee - an excellent poet & critic - a good speaker.

Ishmael Reed - novelist & satirist nominated for National Book Award twice

Imamu Baraka - that would put us on the map!

Maya Angelou

Alice Coltrane - jazz!

Bill Cosby

Clarence Major

John A. Williams - novelist, critic

[I will be glad to give you more information about any of these people.]

MEMORANDUM

ROLLINS COLLEGE

From Roxwell Robinson, President Black Student Union

Date

4/23/74

To Department Heads

Copies To

---

---

Subject Black Awareness Week '75

Plans are now being made for the upcoming Black Awareness Week. Next year's program will be based around the Black Arts (i.e. literary, expressive, etc.).

If you or any other members of your department have any suggestions, please contact me by memo to Box 937. Thank you

MEMORANDUM

ROLLINS COLLEGE

TO: Roxwell

DATE: 4/19/74

FROM: Mr. Bachocheider

COPIES TO:

---

SUBJECT:

A new name for Black Awareness Week:

John Oliver Killens. He would be great. He is young, honest, exciting. He's written novels and satire (Cotillion is one Rollins students know). He's been involved with movies, Black life style, and teaches writing at a university.

John A. Williams might also be a good choice.