

Pathways to Diversity Bibliography

Furman University Libraries

- “3 Negro Teachers Enroll at Furman.” Greenville News, 27 January 1965.
- Admissions Committee Minutes, 15 May 1964. Francis W. Bonner Papers, Box 212, folder “Joseph Allen Vaughn (Furman’s First Negro Student),” Furman University Archives.
- “All Qualified Students May Apply at Furman University.” Greenville News, 9 October 1963.
- “Are Baptist Colleges Crying Wolf?” The Furman University Magazine, Autumn 1963: 14.
- Bainbridge, Judith. Academy and College: The History of the Women’s College at Furman University. Macon, GA: Mercer University Press, 2001.
- “Baptist Board Challenges Trustee Integration Policy.” The Paladin, 26 October 1963.
- “Baptists Tackling Leader, Furman.” The Greenville Piedmont, 13 November 1963.
- Blackwell, Gordon W., oral history interview with Courtney Tollison, 12 April 2000.
- Gordon Blackwell. “Remarks to South Carolina Baptist Convention.” Baptist Courier, 3 December 1964: 11.
- _____. “Student Unrest and the College Campus.” Furman Magazine 14 (no. 3), Winter 1966.
- _____. “United States Society in the Nineteen Sixties.” In The Selected Address of Gordon W. Blackwell. Tallahassee: Douglas Printing Company, 1965.
- Blueprint for Universities for Achieving Integration in Education*. Gordon Blackwell Presidential Papers, Box 1965 E-J, folder: “Integration.” Furman University Archives.
- “Board to Recommend ‘Hands-Off’ Policy to Baptist Convention. The Paladin, 23 October 1964.
- Bonner, Francis. “Letter to Student Body,” 21 May 1955. Student Publications and Media, folder “1955 Echo Controversy,” Furman University Archives.
- Bonner, Francis, oral history interview with Courtney Tollison, 16 February 1999.
- “Charter Change Ordered: Students Found Dazed.” The Paladin, 17 November 1961.
- The Echo*. Spring 1955.

Articles by Charles King, "Perversion of the Baptist Heritage (Book Review and Personal Commentary) and Joan Lipscomb, "No Way Back," the content of this issue occasioned the Furman administration to confiscate all issues before a general release, to nationwide media coverage and general embarrassment. One copy of the original issue survives in the University Archives, and the issue in its entirety was reprinted and distributed to the campus in 2005.

"Echo Editors Resign," Southern School News, 8 June 1955.

Estridge, Larry. "New Student Notes Furman's Friendliness, Scholarship." The Paladin, 19 February 1965.

"Faculty Vote Indicate Heavy Support of Issue." The Paladin, 15 December 1961.

"Fight Goes on, But Candidly, is Finished." The Paladin, 19 May 1962.

Flemming, Lillian Brock, oral history interview with Courtney Tollison, 2004.

"Furman Enrolls First Negro Undergraduate." Baptist Courier, 11 February 1965: 18.

"Furman Enrolls First Negro Undergraduate." Greenville News, 30 January 1965.

"Furman Prepares for the Inevitable." Greenville News, 11 October 1963.

"Furman Trustees Adopt Policy on Applications." The Baptist Courier, 17 October 1963: 5.

"Furman Trustees Maintain Stand." Southern School News, January 1965.

Furman University Faculty Meeting Minutes, 15 April 1963, Furman University Archives.

"Group Attacks School Gleeefully." The Paladin, 16 November 1963.

Haynsworth, Clement to Alester Furman, Jr., ALS 14 May 1962. Frank Bonner Papers, Furman University Archives.

"Hornet Poll Tabulations Indicate Liberal Trend." The Furman Hornet, 15 November 1957.

Huff, A.V., oral history interview with Courtney Tollison, 8 March 2001.

Johnson, L. D. "The Church in an Age of Revolution." Sermon, S.C. Baptist Convention, 12 November 1963. First Baptist Church Office Files: 1962-1968. Folder, "SC Baptist Convention-Correspondence, 1962-1964." Furman University Archives.

"Letters re: Trustees' Action on Integration," 2 folders, John L. Plyler Presidential Papers, Box 11, Furman University Archives.

“Lowstate Baptists to Fight Proposal.” Greenville News, 7 November 1964.

Michel, Gregg L. “It Even Happened Here: Student Activism at Furman University, 1967-1970.” The South Carolina Historical Magazine 109 (1), January 2008.

Minutes of the South Carolina Baptist Convention, 1963 annual meeting. SCBC Annual 12-14 November 1963.

Neumann, Brian. “A Man of Dedication: The Life of Gordon Williams Blackwell,” in Commemorating Desegregation at Furman, 1965-2015. Greenville: Furman University, 2015.

_____. “Progress, Pragmatism, and Power: Furman’s Struggle Over Desegregation,” in Commemorating Desegregation at Furman, 1965-2015. Greenville: Furman University, 2015.

O’Neill, Stephen. “Facing Facts: The ‘Voluntary’ Desegregation of Greenville, South Carolina.” Unpublished paper given at the Citadel Conference on the Civil Rights Movement in South Carolina, 5-8 March, 2003.

_____. “Memory, History, and the Desegregation of Greenville, South Carolina.” In Toward the Meeting of the Waters: Currents in the Civil Rights Movement of South Carolina During the Twentieth Century. Winfred B. Moore, Jr. and Orville Vernon Burton, eds. Columbia: University of South Carolina Press, 2008.

Plyler, John L. ALS to Columbia University Press requesting a copy of “Prevention of Discrimination in Private Educational Institutions,” Baptist Controversies, Race Relations File, Furman University Archives.

_____. ALS to the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching requesting a copy of “The Colleges and the Courts, 1841-1945,” Baptist Controversies, Race Relations File, Furman University Archives.

“Racial Integration at Furman, Twenty-One Years Later,” panel discussion, videotape, 16 April 1986, Furman University Archives.

Rogers, Jeffrey S. “Breaking Up is Hard to Do: Baptists and Furman,” unpublished speech given at Furman University, 16 April 2002.

“S. C. Baptists Adopt Wait-and-See Policy, Asks Integration Delay General Board’s Motion.” The Paladin, 16 November 1963.

Shi, David. “Joe Vaughn Fought His Own Crusade.” Greenville News, 10 February 2002.

Simpkins, Michelle Rene. “Furman’s First Black Students Look Back.” The Paladin, 8 February 1985.

“State BSU Convention Meets in Greenville: Delegates Pass Resolution on Integration.” The Paladin, 8 December 1961.

“Statement on Integration.” Furman Board of Trustees, 8 October 1963. Furman University Archives.

“Student Opinion Mixed on Integration: Faculty Votes Indicate Heavy Support of Issue.” The Paladin, 15 December 1961.

Steadman, Ethel. “Action Demands Delay of Furman Integration.” Greenville News, 14 November 1963.

“Student Releases Articles from Seized FU Echo,” The Greenville News-Piedmont, 19 May 1955.

“Students Accept Trustee Admission Policy 4 to 1.” The Paladin, 9 November 1963.

“Support Our Trustees.” The Paladin, 26 October 1963.

Thomas, June Manning, oral history interview with Jeffrey Makala, 25 October 2018.

Tollison, Courtney. “In Pursuit of Excellence: Desegregation and Southern Baptist Politics at Furman University,” in Roger L. Geiger, ed. History of Higher Education Annual 2003-2004. State College: Pennsylvania State University and Transaction Publishers, 2005.

Valien, Preston. “Desegregation in Higher Education: A Critical Summary,” in The Journal of Negro Education: Desegregation and the Negro College (Summer 1958): 379. Valien identified Furman as one of four segregated universities in the South where students are “far ahead of the governing boards and administrators in their acceptance of desegregation.”

“Wisdom Seen in Decision of Trustees.” The Furman University Magazine, Autumn 1963: 13. Editorial reprinted from the Greenville News.